[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 13.

Impeachment

NEW YORK, May 13.—A Washington special to the Telegraph says the result of a canvass to-day is declared to be quite favorable to the President's conviction. Nearly every Republican Senator expresses the opinion that Saturday will close with that result. The dispatch adds that the Missouri delegation has succeeded in exacting from Henderson a pledge to vote for conviction on the tenth article.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—In the Senate the chair submitted a communication from General Grant including the reports of District Commanders of the number of white and colored voters registered in the different States and the number of votes cast for and against the ratification of the Constitution.

Davis gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill at an early day for the admission of the territories of Arizona and Montana.

The Chair submitted the resignation of John W. Forney as Secretary of the Senate and a motion made that it be laid on the table was negatived. Hendricks moved that the resignation be accepted and that Major McDonald act as Secretary until the appointment of Forney's successor. Sumner objected and the resolution went over.

Wilson offered a joint resolution to restore North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, and Louisiana to representation in Congress.

Sherman called up the House bill for the admission of Arkansas, and suggested the advisability of taking immediate action.

Reverdy Johnson opposed it on the ground that the Senators if they permitted the State to be admitted, would form a constitutional right to vote on the impeachment trial.

Dixon and Buckalew spoke in the same strain.

Sherman disclaimed any such intention in introducing it. The President could control it for ten days.

After further debate the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee to be called up on Monday. The Senate then adjourned.

In the House, Price, from the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported back the bill with amendments to incorporate the Puget Sound and Columbia river Railroad. After considerable discussion and propositions to amend, Price moved the previous question, which the House refused to second. The bill was then referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

The bill to admit North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana and Georgia to representation in Congress was taken up.

Stevens offered the following amendment as an additional section: "Be it further enacted, that the provision of section 17, article 5, of the Constitution of Georgia shall not apply to any debt due any person who during the whole time of rebellion was loyal to the United States and opposed secession." Stevens stated that he would allow the whole day for debate on the part of members opposed to the bill, but would ask their votes to-morrow.

Beck made an hour's speech against the bill.

New York Items

NEW YORK, May 13.—Tammany installed its Sachems with appropriate ceremonies last night.

At a meeting of the Union Republican Committee last evening, speeches were made and resolutions adopted denouncing the Senators who favor the acquittal of the President.

The American Anti-Slavery Society held its twenty fifth Anniversary meeting to-day at Steinway Hall. About 1,600 persons were present, largely composed of ladies. Wendell Phillips and Charles C. Burleigh were the principal speakers. Resolutions were adopted that if the Senate acquit Johnson it will only join itself to him as disloyal and demanding of the Republican party at Chicago, a man who represents the most radical purposes of the loyal people and a platform which shall guarantee to the negro, by constitutional section, impartial suffrage, common school education and such legislation as will secure to him a homestead, and that no action of the great body of the American church gives any sufficient evidence of vigilance or Christian principles on the great question of the hour, while the unconditional surrender of the Boston Tract Society to its pro-Slavery masters affords and evidence of the existence of the old brotherhood of thieves. They also condemn the Democratic party and say it should be repudiated and denounced by all friends of justice and impartial suffrage.

Meeting in Maine

LEWISTOWN, (Me.) May 13.—A large meeting was held last evening to protest against the acquittal of the President. Senator Fessenden's brother was one of the signers of the call.

The course of Senator Morrill was approved.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, May 13.—The Queen to-day, in the presence of a vast multitude, laid with impressive ceremonies the corner stone of Thomas Hospital which is to be built on the Thames immediately opposite the House of Parliament. Her Majesty was attended by the Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of the Royal family and members of the Ministry.

The chief officers of the corporation of the city of London have presented an address to the Queen declaring their profound sympathy with her majesty for the injuries received by Prince Alfred at the hands of assassins and expressing their detestation of the attempted crime.

In the House of Commons, Gladstone this afternoon soon after the commencement of the sitting, moved the bill to prevent making further appointments to livings in the Irish Church for a specified period, also to suspend proceedings of commission on Irish Church establishment for the same.

PARIS, May 13.—The funeral of Lord Brougham took place to-day at Cannes.

VIENNA, May 13.—A bill guaranteeing the right of trial by jury passed the lower house of Reichsrath yesterday.

Fighting old Battles

[From the S. F. Bulletin.]

The speech made in the Democratic State Convention, yesterday, by Lieut Gov Holden, presents quite squarely one of the issues that the party will make in the coming campaign. Whatever the platform may say, the animus of the organization, beyond its unmanly race prejudice, is a malignant and unforgiving anger over the defeat of rebellion and the death of slavery. So strong is the feeling of the majority on this score that the Chairman of the Convention, holding the second office in the State, was applauded for denouncing Lincoln as a violator of the Constitution in that he called for troops to defend the Government and capital of the country, and struck down slavery because it stood in the way of the Union arms. Years have passed since these events occurred, they have gone into history as part of the glory of a saved Republic, and Lincoln, by the common consent of mankind, has taken his place among the select spirits who are entitled to veneration for the nobility and usefulness of their earthly career. But with "a consistent Democrat" nothing is settled. It is not the present or the future that is to be regarded in our politics, but the irrevocable past. In the light of the living present your true Democrat seems to be blinded, and mole like goes poking about in the rubbish of a day forever dead. The griefs, the disputes and the passions of an historic epoch are revived with shrill asseveration amid the bustle of contemporary affairs. It is as if the mummied dead who were placed at Egyptian festal boards should rise in their places to prate of the things done or said when they were in the flesh and urge an astonished audience to take up their old quarrels.

So long as the Democracy go walking about in the cerements of the tomb, fouling the air with the dust of their burial-place and clanking their chains like legendary ghosts, they will rather repel than attract the sympathies of live men, of men who love their country, who rejoiced that it triumphed over a conspiracy to divide it, and who are glad it is rid of the reproach and the danger of human chattelhood. Whatever were the mistakes or the questionable policies of the war for the Union, its grand aim appealed to the hearts of the people, its incidents and leaders are sacred in their memories, and its triumphant close illustrates their annals. None who are false to the inspiration of that struggle for nationality, who bewails its legitimate results, or denounce its most honored chieftains, can win the confidence of the majority of American citizens. Let such, if they cannot accept accomplished facts with philosophy at least have the grace of silence, or, if they must speak, address themselves to topics fresh in the current politics of the country. How States should be rehabilitated, how the privilege of the ballot should be widened or restricted, how the debt should be carried, how taxation should be adjusted, how foreign policy should be shaped—these are all vital questions, which parties may differ without insult to cherished memories, and without breach of patriotic obligations.

The Democracy say much about the beauty and necessity of forgiveness and conciliation; but they will gain little credit for sincerity until they show that they have themselves forgiven and are anxious to conciliate those who fought for and saved the Union against their counsels and in the face of their hostility. There must be reciprocity in the magnanimous programme they commend. Heretofore they have asked everything and conceded nothing. In the same breath that they preach a charitable oblivion, they reopen the angry issues of war and seek to reverse its verdict. The majority of American citizens, however they may deprecate some incidental features of victorious patriotism to follow such leadership as this.

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5th, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

We arrived here on Friday last, and found the climate improved as to the rain, which greeted us through our winter's sojourn in this metropolis, but the winds are perfectly horrible. Every Oregonian has caught cold, and we are all a parcel of Oregon cure, to judge from our barking. The boarders complained, on the floor where we all slept, that their balmy somnolescence was disturbed, and friend Patten, the lean host of the Cosmopolitan, had to separate us and distribute our colds in divers places through his lofty house.

EMIGRATION

From correct data I am informed that last week thirty five hundred persons arrived in this city, and the cry is still they come. Every steamer is overcrowded with emigrants for our golden shores. Where they all go to after their arrival here, is a question I cannot answer.

Our merchants and capitalists who have the interests of our young State at heart and wish for its prosperity should unite and develop some scheme whereby a portion of this tide which is flowing to California, may be turned in our direction. Let them know our boundless resources in minerals, in agriculture—our genial climate and the ease with which they can support a family and become independent and wealthy, and we will as surely obtain the great desideratum, population.

RAIL ROADS.

There are many persons of wealth and influence who are very favorably disposed towards the accomplishment of our desires in building a road for the iron horse through our far-famed Willamette valley and bring our golden grains to this market. Their attentions have served to remove our prejudices against Californians, for we, until this occasion, always accused them of the extreme selfishness of being wrapt up in their own State to the exclusion of any feeling but that of contempt for us Oregonians.

Accompanying this letter on the steamer, goes up a first class saw mill with all the modern improvements, for the Oregon Central, and I trust the road will be sufficiently graded to demand a rapid sawing out of the ties. I know that the shrill shriek of the iron horse will be heard from the banks of our river to Oregon City by the 1st of September.

AMUSEMENTS.

In the shape of amusements the sensational has given way to the legitimate drama. Mrs. Bowers, the queen of tragedy, is performing a successful engagement, and her rendition of Queen Eliza both is considered second only to that of the celebrated artiste Ristori. The grand opera season will be opened at Maguire's next month. Some of the best artistes, who have been delighting the admirers of music in the East, are now enroute for this place. The Minstrels are nightly performing to crowded houses composed of strangers.

Watkins' views of our Columbia river scenery are attracting much attention and admiration. I hear of quite a number of Yosemite tourists intending to visit Oregon and delight in the beauties of our grand natural scenery. The world is moving, and we are destined yet to obtain our deserts. Oregon's star will yet be recognized as one of brilliancy in the constellation of States.

Oregon Railroad Enterprise.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

There is every reason to believe that Oregon is stirring with a new impulse. After a long period of distrust or indifference with reference to the railroad project to traverse the State from the Columbia river to the California border, the Oregonians seem at least to be convinced that the building of the road has been undertaken in good faith by responsible parties. We have from reliable sources some facts on this subject which are full of interest. On the 16th of April ground was formally broken for the road on the east bank of the Willamette, opposite Portland, in the presence of several thousand people, who displayed unusual enthusiasm. The locality mentioned is a fertile flat, partly covered with strawberry vines. About one hundred ladies insisted on turning a shovel full of earth, and many of them plucked strawberry vines to plant in their gardens at home in commemoration of the occasion. A more practical evidence of the popularity of the road is found in the fact that the farmers along the route are subscribing liberally to its stock. For ten per cent paid, the Company issue unassessable stock, raising the balance of money needed on bonds. Those who cannot pay money for their stock, pay in land and produce. Some farmers subscribe ten, fifty, and one hundred acres each. Major Glenn, of Jackson, in Rogue River Valley, has subscribed half of his tract of 6,000 acres, to be conveyed when the road reaches that region. Many farmers who do not wish to part with any of their land, are subscribing a certain quantity of grain for a fixed time.

The company has contracted with S. G. Elliott, who is said to be backed by Jay Cook & Co., for the construction of 150 miles of road, to a point 40 miles south of Eugene City, at the head of the Willamette valley. This much of the work is to be done in two years. The road will be in operation to Oregon City, 10 miles from Portland, by September 1, and to Salem, 50 miles from Portland, by January next. Oregon City is a flourishing manufacturing locality, where an unrivalled water power exists, and where woolen, paper and iron mills are already in operation. The maximum grade of the road for the 150 miles will not reach 40 feet per mile, and for a great portion of the distance it will be nearly or quite level. Grading is progressing at the rate of two miles a week. The character of the country is very favorable to rapid grading, most of which can be done with plows and teams. The iron and rolling stock for fifty miles have been purchased, as heretofore stated in this paper, and some of the material, including that for two locomotives and several cars, has already reached Portland. A workshop is now going up on the east side, and an agent of the company who is now in this city, Mr. Loryea, has purchased the machinery for two sawmills to cut ties and other timber. Some of the farmers along the road are now engaged in getting out ties for the first section. A contract has been let for the construction across the Willamette of a double deck bridge 450 feet long, to cost $250,000 and to be done in one year. The city meets a part of its cost. Before its completion connection will be made with the first section of road by a ferry. The road is to be of a substantial character. The track will be of 50 pound iron, fish bolt rail like that on the Central Pacific which makes a solid continuous track, and gauge 4 feet 8½ inches. The company has lately closed a contract with the same parties above named to complete the road to the California border, a distance of over three hundred miles within five years, and hope in that time, if not before, to meet the track of a connecting road from this State. An agent of the company goes East on the next steamer to purchase more iron, and to meet the first interest payments on the company's bonds.

The above statements, which are made on good authority, are highly important to the material interests of both California and Oregon, and it is to be hoped that the anticipations they excite will not be disappointed. The farmers of Oregon who are represented to be subscribing to the stock of this road confidently, exhibit a degree of good sense and sagacity which might be imitated to advantage in this State, where by local subscriptions in money, land or produce, aided by bonds, good railroads can be built for the accommodation of our valley districts at from $16,000 to $20,000 a mile. The Oregon Central goes through the heart of the Willamette Valley, which is the granary and garden of the State, and, if rightly managed, cannot but prove a profitable enterprise to all concerned. Several capitalists of San Francisco have taken a warm interest in the work and will help to push it forward. They and other capitalists of this city will find it to their advantage to promote railroad enterprise in California on the same plan.

[From the Alta California.]

On the 15th inst the work of building the Oregon Central Railroad was commenced at Portland and a contract has been entered into between the company and the city of Portland that the road shall be running to Hillsboro, a distance of twenty five miles before the end of 1869. The Committee declare that they hope and expect that the work will go on till they reach the southern line of Oregon, but they cannot make any promises because they have not yet made arrangements for obtaining the next fifty funds. The enterprise, however, is not without resources. Congress passed an act on the 25th of July, 1866, granting twenty sections, or 12,800 acres per mile for the road, and the Legislature promised to pay $10,000 interest on the Company's bonds per mile for the first hundred miles. The city of Portland has bound itself to pay interest at the rate of seven per cent. on $250,000 of the bonds for twenty years, or $350,000 in all, and Washington county, of which Hillsboro is the county seat, has bound itself to pay similar interest on $50,000 of bonds, equivalent to $75,000. The subscriptions and donations, in cash and land, amount to $300,000, so that the Company starts with a capital of $1,725,000, exclusive of the Congressional land grant. This is certainly a very encouraging condition of affairs for a railroad to a flat country, where the road can be built for $15,000 per mile, at the outside, and, perhaps for $12,000. The Company ought to build not less than one hundred miles with these resources without delay.

The route runs southward from Portland on the west side of the Willamette river, through Eugene City, and then follows the general course of the stage road through Roseburg, Jacksonville, Yreka and Shasta to Marysville. For 125 miles the road will be in the Willamette valley, and then 200 miles will be spent in crossing the Umpqua, Rogue and Klamath valleys and their mountain borders, and another 125 miles will bring the cars from the head of the Sacramento valley to Marysville. There is urgent need of this road, which would be of vast service in developing the trade of the Willamette and [illegible] valleys, and also of the intermediate basins that have no navigable streams or good harbors, and are cut off from trade by rugged mountains and an inhospitable coast. The Columbia is not [illegible] for the commerce of an agricultural region like the Willamette valley, which contains the largest compact body of tilled land on this slope of the continent. The entrance of the river [illegible] dangerous at all seasons, and navigation is obstructed by ice for several weeks nearly every winter.

Beyond the basin of the Willamette lies that of Puget Sound on the same line, and still richer in industrial resources, and destined [illegible] one of the chief centers of ship-building, and fisheries. West of the Cascade range, and [illegible] 42° and 49°, there is room for 10,000,000 people, and there would to-day be profitable employment for nearly half that number if this railroad were finished. It must be built. It is the only possible road to give direct connection [illegible] this State and the cities that are to grow up on the shores of Puget Sound. The American empire on the Pacific cannot exist without a track along the coast. It is folly to imagine that we are always to depend on steamboats, or that we should be content to go out to the Humboldt river on the Central Pacific road, and then take a branch road to Portland, even if that branch were [illegible] certain of being built. Shasta, Yreka, Jacksonville and Roseburg cannot be left to mud roads. The distance between Shasta and Salt Lake City, by way of the Humboldt, would be about 1,000 miles, while in a direct line it is not 150. The branch road from the Humboldt to Portland is very good for Oregonians going East, but it will not do for coast traffic.

The Congressional donation is given to the Oregon Central Railroad Company, but there are two companies by that name each claiming the donation. The one which has already commenced work is the oldest in date, and proposes to build its road on the west side of the Willamette river. This company has been recognized by the Secretary of the Interior as the one named in the act of Congress. The other proposes to build a road on the eastern side of the river, where the richest and most populous agricultural districts lie. The Western Company, so far as we can see, have the inside track.

FEMALE LOBBYISTS IN WASHINGTON.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes:

When lovely women stoop to lobby—what should be done with her? Really, I don't know, unless to make it one of the conditions of granting her request that she shall wear an unbecoming bonnet the rest of her life. The pressure which is brought to bear beneath delicately gloved hands is really amusing—hydraulic force is scarcely a circumstance in comparison. There is a power behind the throne which only the throne can realize, and the number of sheep [illegible] is something marvelous—more than one stalwart member of our Congress is bound by seven green withes—seventy times seven in fact. Hosts of themselves, their relatives, or their [illegible], for what these ladies ask, and if they have beauty and brass they seldom ask in vain. A woman interprets a man's "no" by her own construction of the monosyllable, and falls back on the parable of the unjust Judge, and his petitioner, that she shall win after much wearying. But as Heaven generally sends almonds to those who have no teeth, and rains figs into baskets that are already full, so it happens that the women who really needs is sent away empty handed. A case was told me of one who came last spring to obtain, if possible, some place in the Treasury. Her husband had been in the army, and was so reduced by hardships [illegible] as to be incapable of leaving his bed. Her only brother was killed in one of the battles of the Wilderness. She was left with a sick husband and three children to [illegible] had parted with her few valuables for the [illegible] of the family until she finally was compelled to pawn her husband's sword. Without friends and without money, it was impossible for her to obtain a hearing, and certainly [illegible], that, all things considered, it was a pretty hard life. Fortunately, her story came to the ears of a kindhearted and influential gentleman who at once took her to the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and demanded, rather than asked, a place for her. One was made, but came too late. The husband died soon after, and the misery and humiliation she had undergone so wrought upon the wife that she sickened and died during the summer. What become of her children I do not know but in the right order of Providence they, too should have died, for such legacies are expensive to the country.

One of the editors of the Cleveland Leader recently called on Senator Sumner, at Washington. The impeachment trial came up, and the Senator spoke of the reputation and ability of the counsel on either side. He thought highly of Boutwell, Wilson and Bingham, but seemed to expect that Butler would prove the working man among the prosecutors. Evarts he considered the ablest of the President's lawyers. Judge Curtis, he said, was an able lawyer, never a Republican [illegible], but a remnant of the old Webster Whig party. The utter fossiliferous condition of these old Webster Whigs found an illustration close at hand. Taking from the table at his side, a small paper weight, on which a bronze lizard was disporting himself Mr. Sumner said: "Do you know how they make these bronzes in Italy? They take a live lizard and clap the moist clay over him. So they get in the mold the form of the living lizard, but the lizard dies. Now Mr. Curtis seemed to have had the clay clapped over him at the moment that Webster died. He has not stirred since."

Every second-rate Copperhead editor and stump speaker in the country is reiterating and dilating upon the financial scheme proposed by their declared candidate for President, George H. Pendleton. The gist of that scheme is a proposition to substitute greenbacks for bonds, and stop the payment of interest. Pendleton would begin by grinding out a fresh supply of greenbacks to the amount of $400,000,000 and forcing the national banks to take them and surrender the bonds which they have deposited as security for their circulation. Greenbacks just now are the especial object of "Democratic" admiration. But it was not so once. Pendleton, the [illegible] financier, once argued that Congress had no right to make them a legal tender, or even to issue them. He drew a terrible picture of the country in which the Constitution would be outraged and the business of the country prostrated by the issue of the limited amount of greenbacks which were authorized by the first act which provided for their emission; but he now thinks the Constitution would not suffer at all if greenbacks were issued to the full amount of the national debt. In January, 1862, when talking on this subject in Congress he said: "I find no grant of this power in direct terms, or, as I think, by fair implication, in the Constitution. It is not an accidental omission; it is not an omission through inadvertency; it was intentionally left out of the Constitution, because it was designed that the power should not reside in the Federal Government." Again, he remarked: "You send these notes out into the world stamped with irredeemability. You put on them the mark of Cain, and like Cain, they will go forth to be vagabonds and fugitives on the earth. What will be the consequence? It requires no prophet to tell what will be their history. The currency will be expanded; prices will be inflated; fixed values will depreciate; incomes will be diminished; the savings of the poor will vanish; the hoardings of the widow will melt away; bonds, mortgages and notes, everything of fixed value, will lose their value; everything of changeable value will be appreciated; gold and silver will be driven out of the country. What then? The day of reckoning must come. Contraction will fall. Private ruin and public bankruptcy, either with or without REPUDIATION, will inevitably follow."

We submit the above to the consideration of the "Democratic" orators of Oregon who are [illegible] the rattle of the greenback scheme of which this [illegible] George H. Pendleton is author and champion. All sensible people know that the currency is inflated to the full extent which it will bear. If this scheme of Pendleton's, of which we hear so much, is put in operation, its advocates can soon use the words we have quoted from one of the old speeches of their leader to describe the disastrous results. The ruin he predicted then did not follow, because the business of the country absorbed all the currency which was issued; but to suppose that, to the paper now in circulation, enough could be added, without an immediate financial collapse, to "pay off" the five-twenty bonds, would be an act of folly which nobody but a "scurvy politician" would commit.

The Spirit of Assassination.

There are indications that the Democratic Assassins at Washington are again at work. It is the habit of this infernal faction, whenever it is [illegible] by the friends of liberty, order and justice, to resort to assassination, and by this greatest of crimes at which the whole world shudders, to try to accomplish purposes which it cannot accomplish at the bar of an enlightened public judgment. As it turned the land into mourning by the murder of a President, it is not surprising that it should now attempt to secure its object by the murder of Senators. By assassination it placed Andrew Johnson in the station he occupies, and it is fully in keeping with its instincts and practices to attempt, by assassination, to keep him there. The suspicion of poisoning which is intimated in our dispatches to-day may prove unfounded; but it need not surprise any one if it turns out to be literally true. The faction which rules the Democratic party has murder in its heart. Assassination is the result of its teachings—a result of which the country has had terrible proof. Who that remembers the [illegible] atrocious work of these assassins can avoid a feeling of deep concern at a time like the present? Will the people witness unmoved, this state of things? Will honest men affiliate with a party which is so evidently ruled by a spirit of assassination?

"Colohan" (McKinney) of Oregon City writes to the Herald a long letter full of lamentations about the late Copperhead defeat in the municipal election at that place. Of course he alleges fraud. Here is a specimen: "A man by the name of Rickards, an employee on the Senator, and whose family resides in Portland, was brought up and voted the loyal ticket." Mr. Rickards did not vote nor offer to vote at Oregon City. He is a resident of the Third Ward in this city, and like a good citizen votes the "loyal ticket" at home. This allegation of "fraud" is simply a common specimen of Copperhead lying.

It is understood that the "Democracy" of Portland are making preparations for a torchlight parade in case Andy is acquitted. Three or four years ago many of them would have exulted over his assassination, and all of them were cursing him as a despot. Our advice to them is not to be in too much haste with their preparations to jubilate. Johnson's friends last March had everything ready to celebrate their victory in New Hampshire; but after the election they had powder and illuminating materials for sale.

The "Democracy" seem to be convinced of the necessity of nominating as a Presidential candidate some person "with an unexceptionable war record." General Lee is clearly their man. His war record is not at all "exceptionable" to the thoroughgoing masses of the party.

Qualifications of Electors.

We have been requested to publish, for public convenience, the laws of the State in regard to the qualifications of electors. The Constitution of the State, Article II, Section 2, provides that:

"In all elections, every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the State during the six months immediately preceding such election—and every white male of foreign birth of the age of twenty one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the United States one year, and shall have resided in this State six months immediately preceding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States one year preceding such election, conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, shall be entitled to vote."

This is the principal provision in regard to the qualifications of electors. It is also provided that no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States or this State, and that no soldier, seaman or marine shall be deemed to have acquired a residence in the State in consequence of being stationed here. The Constitution also declares that "electors shall vote in the precinct of the county where they may reside, for county officers, and in any county in the State for State officers, or in any county of a Congressional district in which such electors may reside, for members of Congress." The act of October 11th, 1861, requires ninety days bona fide residence in a county next preceding an election, to entitle a person to vote for county and precinct officers.

The Missouri Democrat well says: So far as the recent elections have any bearing whatever upon the policy of Congress, either as to impeachment or reconstruction, they weaken its opponents, strengthen its friends, and insure its success. One after another, the men who have resisted that policy go down unlamented to the silent tomb from which there is no political resurrection. Two years ago, Lane, Wright, Stockton and Foster disappeared from the Senate. One year ago Nesmith, McDougal and Cowan vanished. Now the cold waves of political oblivion roll over Dixon, Doolittle and Patterson, and will shortly send Hendricks and Buckalew to their long rest. If Democracy can find any comfort in these results of its "glorious victories" and "great reactions," we trust it will keep on in the same direction. There are at present twelve opponents of the Union reconstruction policy in the Senate, and, of these, three are already sent into retirement by an indignant people, while two more will be removed during the current year. The Democratic party, like the rebel army during the war, grows "small by degrees and beautifully less," though all the time bragging of overwhelming and decisive victories. In November next, we presume it will "get General Grant just where it wants him"—much as Lee used to do when he commanded the Democratic forces. A few more defeats, if you please, Messrs. Democrats! We can stand them if you can.

A prominent Democrat down in California has been printing in the San Francisco Examiner a series of articles of the wool and shin-bone order, designed to prove the correctness of the theory of the Nasby Democracy in regard to the negro. In noticing these disgusting articles the Chronicle remarks: "They have very profoundly impressed us with several truths. They have impressed us more deeply than ever with the meanness and hatefulness of the vulgar prejudice of caste and color. They have impressed us with a fresh conviction that mere education cannot disinfect a naturally narrow and ungenerous mind of this inhuman prejudice. And they have confirmed us in our determination to wage an unrelenting warfare against that prejudice with every weapon which we know how to wield, as long as our fingers can hold a pen, and we have an organ through which to give utterance to our convictions. For this much we are indebted to Mr. McConnell."

The following is an extract from a letter written by an eminent Eastern banker: "It is enough to say, to the idea of a 'bond holding aristocracy,' that it is in the power of any man to become a bond holder by purchase in the market, if he regards the exemption from taxation as a sufficient inducement to sell taxable property and so invest the proceeds. If bond holders are a 'favored class,' no man possessing any property is excluded from that class except on his own choice, and no such idea can be made a justification for violation by the Government of a contract which at the time it was made was indispensable to the supply of the Treasury."

A correspondent who recently visited Anderson cemetery, says: "You may read statements of mortality unmoved, but when you see a row of graves of 130 men who all died in one day, you are shocked. It must have taken a small army to bury these men. They lay shoulder to shoulder, as they stood in the ranks; yet the dead of one day more than fill a row two hundred feet long. My indignation went on increasing from 'No. 1, died February 27, 1864,' to 'No. 13,848, died April 28, 1865.' I fear if we all lived in sight of Andersonville, there would be no moderate men, hardy and just men, but a nation of revengeful men."

Last year the Democrats carried Virginia City, Nevada, by 116 majority in a vote of less than 1,200. This year they elect their Mayor by 65 majority in a vote more than double that of 1867. Speaking of the election and the desperate efforts made by the Democrats, the Enterprise says: "We are more jubilant at the result than any thinking Democrat can be. It shows a calm strength in the Republican party adequate to control the city whenever exerted against honest competition, and leaves the opposition without the shadow of a hope of carrying either Storey county or the State next fall."

During the last four weeks the "organ" which lives by "sponging upon the public treasury," has received just $276 00 for city printing, the greater part of which is a totally unnecessary expense. Twenty-five hundred dollars is probably a low estimate of the amount of money which will be drawn from the people in the way of taxes to pay for supporting this beggarly concern during the current year. In one month it has received two-thirds as much as was paid for the city printing during the entire year of 1866, before the "retrenchers" got in power.

The Democratic Governor of California, not content with dining with "nasty, disgusting Chinese," has gone to pardoning his Mongolian brethren out of the penitentiary. A few days ago he pardoned Ah Fong, a "man and brother" from Mariposa, who under Abolition rule, has been confined in the penitentiary some years for murder.

Some time ago surveys were ordered by Congress to ascertain the practicability of a ship canal between Lakes Erie and Ontario. The Engineer reports seven practicable routes, and the estimates cost of each at from eleven to thirteen million dollars. The canal will be from seven to ten miles in length. Chicago, Detroit, and other lake cities are clamorous for its construction.

A COPPERHEAD GAME.—The Record says: A letter from a gentleman in Boise City to a friend here says E. D. Holbrook and other Democrats of Idaho are about starting on a stumping tour through Eastern Oregon. Holbrook is about as complete and reckless a desperado as is to be found on the continent—a bad man thoroughly and it is not probable his influence, either moral or political, will accomplish anything for the lost cause, unless they import, as is intimated, a host of reptiles from their own Territory to illegally influence the elections. We commend the matter to the attention of Union men east of the mountains, confident that they are able to give a good account of themselves.

Speculations about the Trial Vote

CHICAGO, May 14.—Specials discourse of little else than the impeachment.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the friends of impeachment regard the 2d and 11th articles as certain. Only two or three Senators are in doubt.

Mr. Henderson will not vote for the 11th article. Mr. Trumbull has not committed himself against this article.

Mr. Fowler has deserted the Republican party entirely.

The illness of three Senators—Howard, Conkling and Grimes—causes considerable excitement. The first symptoms of all are of the same character, the seat of attack being the bowels. In the case of Messrs. Howard and Conkling this feature is very severe. With Mr. Grimes it is less marked, but accompanied by paralytic symptoms. He became much better after removal to his home and complains only of slight numbness in the [illegible]. His physicians hope he will be out in a few days. Mr. Howard is also better, though still very sick. Mr. Conkling is so ill that his friends are not allowed to see him. There were some grounds last week for apprehending such trouble. Senators were cautioned to exercise great care in drinking from the pitchers at the Capitol.

The President's friends count on both the West Virginia Senators, Cole, of California, and Fowler. Anthony is regarded as doubtful. Sprague is considered safe by the impeachers. There is no certainty that a vote will be taken on Saturday. The Republicans freely declare that unless conviction is certain, the vote will be postponed until after the Chicago Convention.

In reply to a telegram from St. Louis, inquiring if he would not vote for conviction on the 11th article, Henderson said, "Tell my friends I am sworn to do impartial justice according to law and evidence, and will try to do it like an honest man."

Connecticut Senator.

HARTFORD, May 14.—The Republican legislative caucus had twenty one ballots at New Haven last night, without a choice for a candidate for U. S. Senator. The last ballot was, Buckingham 59, Hawley 54, Platt 18.

From Canada.

MONTREAL, May 14.—A man named Duggan, a saloon keeper, and two accomplices, were arrested yesterday, charged with being implicated in the plot to assassinate McGee. One of the witnesses testified to being present at Duggan's house last December, when the conspiracy was organized. Twelve American and twelve Canadian Fenians were present. He testified that Whalen was present and was selected to do the job. He then went by the name of Smith.

Pennsylvania Fenians.

HARRISBURG, May 14.—The State Convention of the Fenians met yesterday. Forty-nine circles were represented. Officers were elected. A secret session of three hours was held. An enthusiastic meeting was held in the evening.

Mississippi "Democratic" Convention.

JACKSON (Miss.) May 14.—The Democratic Convention has renominated Gov. Humphreys by acclamation. Candidates for other State offices were also nominated.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 14.—Chas. Francis Adams took leave of the Queen yesterday at a special audience. He left London soon after for the continent, leaving Major Moran in charge of the American legation in this city.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The Golden Age sailed for Panama this morning, with 224 passengers and $1,008,829 in treasure. Among the passengers was Hon. S. B. Axtell. His friends escorted him to the steamer with a band of music, and salutes were fired in his honor.

Last night the room of a gentleman named Marks, was entered by a burglar, and robbed of about $250 worth of jewelry, rings, chains, etc.

Night before last Morganstein's cloak store and J. H. Mossbeck's fancy dry goods store, on Kearney street, between Pine and California, were opened by burglars and robbed of about $300 worth of property.

Money and Stock Market.

Legal tenders 71@71½.
Gold in New York closed at 139¾.

Foreign Markets.

Wheat quiet but steady at $3 10@3 15. Flour $12 25@14. Liverpool wheat quotations uncertain—either 15s 7d or 15s 11d, probably the former.

San Francisco Markets.

The Bulletin's commercial article yesterday stated that new wheat was expected to open at about $2 per cental. The first few small lots may bring this price, but the more general feeling is in favor of $1 75 as an outside figure. Some parties place the opening price still lower down. Of course at this early stage of the season it is idle to speculate on the subject.

Flour—The Panama steamer this morning carried the bulk of 1800 bbls in transit to New York.

Wheat—There was shipped by the Panama steamer this morning 110 tons in transit to New York, the first invoice of the kind that has gone forward in months. Sales include 800 sks choice at $2 12½, 700 sks choice at $1 12½; 100 sks good at $2 05. Market dull and nominal at $2@2 12½. At the close 200 sks good sold at $2 10.

Barley—Sales include 600 sks fair brewing at $1 75; 300 sks choice at full figure; 300 sks choice at $1 80; 100 sks fair at $1 75; 1100 sks choice, for export, private; 1800 sks. choice, in strong bags, for shipment to Arizona, private. The quotations are $1 70@1 80.

Oats—In the absence of reported sales we quote the market nominal at $2 15@2 45 from the wharf, and $2 25@2 50 for small lots from the store.

Shipping.

Cleared—May 13, barkentine Occident for Portland. May 14, ship Hesper for Port Townsend.

A CHINESE LOAN.—The Unionist has the following:

Some of the Democracy are much exercised in relation to the report that part of the eclectic sum staked on Joe Smith was borrowed from a Chinaman. We do not know that such loan was actually negotiated, but the circumstantial evidence is pretty strong. A citizen informs us that on the morning of that memorable crisis among the Species, Mr. John Wa-Gee, the "Laundry man-in-Chief" of Salem, called in great haste and peremptorily dunned him for a wash bill, "You pay me one dollar six bittee; he-ah, me lend him Democrat. Dam!"

This having occurred while the Species were out "passing the sasser," led our friend to think that one of their financial agents had struck Mr. Wa Gee for a small loan, threatening to withdraw the patronage of the Democratic party, if he didn't come out. The peculiar circumstances naturally led to that conclusion.

The same paper adds:

There was a considerable gathering of the Species yesterday, on the corner of State and Commercial streets. At first we thought there might be a negro-whipping or a slave-auction, or some other Democratic diversion; but it was only a crowd talking about betting. But nobody appeared to have any money, and the ones with "nary red" were the noisiest. Democrats in arrears with John Wa Gee for three months' washing, are quite ready to bet ten thousand dollars on Joe Smith.

The Democracy of New Hampshire same as the Democracy of Tennessee have done, and just as the Democracy everywhere else will do, after the "niggers" get enfranchised, were very solicitous for the colored vote of that State. New Hampshire is not a "white man's government," the male negro adults residing there being guarantied the ballot; and the other day, at the election there a Democratic "nigger" got a nomination to office in the town of Londonderry (where Horace Greeley was born) and, every Copperhead in the town voted for him.

SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION OF THE
Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANICS' Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next, in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.

During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted, both for display and convenience of the public, of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water-tight, being covered with a shingle roof, so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics, or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition, and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered, and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

By order of the Board of Directors.
my15d1mw1m HORACE D. DUNN, Cor. Sec'y.

To the Public.

FROM this date the undersigned retires from the Life Insurance business. This step is taken in view of the fact that while the companies are all on a sound financial basis, and investments of this kind proper, prudent and beneficial in relieving the burthens and sorrows of widowhood and orphanage—while I view Life Insurance as a proof of high moral sociality in all communities where practiced—the competition for business is not carried on by agents of some companies in the spirit of fair and honest competition, some of them being ignorant of the working of the company they represent, as well as of the business in general, and therefore unable to advance the merits of their company, by honest facts, resort to slander and personal abuse of those more successful in procuring business than themselves.

The time was when Agents of rival Companies met together in friendship as a Board of Life Underwriters, and consulted upon matters of mutual interest and advantage. But that day is past on the Pacific Coast! It has given place to a cut throat style of competition, forcing those who have pursued a different course in procuring business, to adopt the new mode or retire from the business. I choose the latter.

Thankful for a generous success in the business, to those contemplating Life Insurance, I heartily recommend them to try the Manhattan of New York. It is a Company managed with unrivalled economy, and the General Agents, Messrs. Landers & Co., as well as the Agent for Oregon, C. P. Perry, Esq., are gentlemen worthy of the highest confidence.

Trusting those who have been in the habit of slandering and vilifying her may find comfort in nursing their venom, I predict that they will realize the effect of the course they pursue in the general distrust of their companies and agents. Such cannot fail to be the effect of the course followed, and such I predict will be the result.

THE BULLETIN'S STATISTICS.—The San Francisco Bulletin in a late editorial article on railroad enterprises in Oregon, makes a few statements which will sound a little strange to people here as well as altogether new. Speaking of the east side railroad, it says the contract is "backed by Jay Cook & Co." In this country it is understood that A. J. Cook & Co are the contractors and that Jay Cook has no more to do with it than has the man in the moon. Says the Bulletin: "Oregon City is a flourishing manufacturing locality, where an unrivaled water power exists, and where woolen, paper and iron mills are already in operation." The paper and iron mills in operation at Oregon City, are not visible to the naked eye of an Oregonian. Speaking of railroad material, it says: "Some of the material, including the ... and sleepers, has already reached Portland." We have not been able as yet to see any locomotives. Again: "A contract has been let for the construction across the Willamette of a double deck bridge 400 feet long, to cost $250,000 and to be done in one year. The city meets a part of its cost." This is to ... The Bulletin either has a remarkably fast way of getting news or it has been shamefully stuffed. We are inclined to the opinion that the latter supposition is the true one. What good purpose is to be served by the publication of such and similar untruths with which the article abounds, we cannot imagine.

THE COW NUISANCE.—Since we have had nothing to say about the cow nuisance we have heard of several very aggravating cases. A night or two since, one gentleman had a ... bank torn down which he had just completed at considerable expense. The hardest case, however, was one which occurred some time ago: A family having occasion to be absent over night, left the house ... carefully closing the doors and the gate. When they came home in the morning, they found that a cow had broken down the gate and the kitchen door, had passed through the kitchen, after destroying a sack of flour ... pots ..., into the dining and sitting rooms, where she tipped over and broke tables and ... by the accidental closing of the door, and was there found in the ... lying down and chewing her cud. If the infernal ranging beasts would break into only their owner's ... and houses, the cow ... would soon be abated, by killing or sending them out of the city.

THE ... OF THE FAIR.—The Ladies' Fair at Oro Fino Hall, for the benefit of the Beth Israel congregation, ... ended that evening. Throughout it was a most gratifying success, in every ... particular. The immense stock of articles on exhibition during the three evenings was ... of in the later hours of the ..., some by raffle and others by sale at auction. Mr. ... made numberless very pretty little speeches, and knocked off things in a most surprising way and at most surprising prices. The managers had excellent reason to be satisfied, as the proceeds of schemes and sales were quite equal, if not beyond, their reasonable ... At a moderate estimate, the nett profits will reach near $2,500—a larger sum, we think than has ever been realized at a single fair in the city. On M... evening, as a sort of appendix to the fair, there will be a soiree at Oro Fino Hall.

SHIPPING NEWS.—By the arrival of the Ajax, we learn that the bark De... went to sea on last Wednesday. The bark Melancthon is at Westport loading with lumber. The Rainier is at St. Helens loading with lumber. Captain Hayden, who came up Wednesday informs us that he has about half her cargo in. He has not yet ... of seamen, those here being still on a strike for wages which he firmly refuses to pay. When the bark's cargo shall be completed, he will go down the river and wait at Astoria till he can get a sufficient ... to get up his canvas and then go to sea, even if obliged to go short handed. The Fullenbury is loading here with produce, will be full probably to-day.

REPAIRS OF STREETS.—The contractors for the repair of the Nicolson paved streets have now been several days at work and have taken up sections of the pavement at several points between Morrison and Stark streets. The blocks and the planking are invariably found to be sound as they ever were, and the conviction is fast gaining ground that the Nicolson will yet be found the cheapest, as well as the best pavement in existence. There seems to be no difficulty in taking it up for repairs or in relaying it as firmly as at first. The contractors for repairs of ... are getting the material down ... have got the rock ... in position on ... at the foot of Taylor street.

...—The P. T. Co's ... Echo has received ... alterations lately to her cabins and is in ... fitting for the Eugene City trade. When ... she will receive the cylinders and some other ... from the Enterprise, now ... above Corvallis and then the latter will be sent to the boneyard to ... from service. She has ... too much ... and destroyed from long ..., to be of further use. The Company's new light draught steamer will be ready for service in a short time.

... INVITED TO OREGON.—It is stated by the Evening Bulletin that an invitation has been extended ... dignitary of the order of Good Templars of ..., to Mr. E. Z. C. Judson "Ned Buntline"—to ... and lecture on temperance, during his sojourn on this coast. We do not know how much truth there may be in the ..., but we are inclined to the ... that no such invitation has been given. Mr. ... arrived at San Francisco a few days since.

... PRODUCE.—The following were the arrivals ... per Senator, 9 bales wool ... goods, 31 cases ... bacon, ... hlf bbls dried apples, 3 cases lard ... iron, 1,750 qr sks flour and 22 sks feed. Per ... kegs beer and 54 bags wheat. Per steamer ..., 1,433 gunnies oats, 322 gunnies wheat, 35 cases ... eggs, 5 cases hides, 17 sks bacon, 4 hlf bbls ... machine.

... PICNIC.—The several Sabbath schools ... city will unite in celebrating an annual picnic at ... We are requested to state the ... engaged for the occasion will leave Vaughn's ... the foot of Morrison street, at precisely 8 o'clock ..., and that all who desire to ... the excursion ... be on board at that time. No waiting for anybody.

CHANGE IN QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.—We learn ... was received a day or two ... by Col. ... directing him to turn over the Quartermaster's ... of this Department to Col. H. C. Wilson, at present Depot Quartermaster at Fort Vancouver. We are not informed as to the future assignment of Col. Eddy.

WILL FILED.—The last will and testament of George ..., deceased, was filed for proof yesterday. Messrs. ..., Henry Saxer and E. F. Schroeder ... executors and required to give bonds in the sum of $30,000. We are informed that the deceased left property here to the amount of over $15,000.

A FAT BOY.—We saw a fat boy of nine ... years ... He made the beam go up at the 131 ... Unlike Wardle's fat boy, in Pickwick, ..., he was not "asleep again, d—n the boy," nor was he ... a meat pie two essential points of difference ... very lively and likely child.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.—At the meeting of the U. S. District Court yesterday morning, the following persons ... admitted to citizenship: Ernest Caro, a native of ...; ..., and Joshua Davis, England; ... and Charles Schwaet, Bavaria; and ... Prussia.

...—The steamship Active will sail for Victoria at 8 P. M. this evening and the Ajax will sail for San Francisco "on or about" Saturday. The ... is advertised ... to sail for Victoria, on ... freight at $3 40 per ton.

LECTURE.—Rev. Father Buchard, S. J., delivered a ... last evening at the Catholic church. Subject: "The Infallibility of the church." It is stated that he will ... a public lecture for the benefit of the ... Library Association.

RAILROAD MEETING AT OREGON CITY.—A meeting in behalf of the Oregon Central Railroad, East side, was held at Oregon city last evening. Several persons went up from this city to make speeches.

THE CIRCUS.—The Great Western circus has gone southward, on a tour of this State and Northern California. It was advertised to perform at Oregon City last ... and to day.

B. B. PRACTICE.—The Spartans will practice this afternoon across the river.

1. He did not violate the law.
2. He violated the law without guilty intent.
3. He had a right to violate the law.
4. The law is not a law.

During the last campaign, the Democratic orators coined such euphonious epithets for the Chinese as "blear eyed barbarians," "pig-tailed rice gobblers," "stinking opium devourers," and "almond-eyed heathens." Now the head and front of the party, Henry H. Haight, who indulged in as much of the ... verbiage as any of them, presided at a dinner given to some Chinese gentlemen at the Lick House last Tuesday night, on which occasion he forgot all about the opium and pig-tails, and the hickory nut eyes, and alluded to the Celestials as "our honored guests."

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.
OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E J Northrup & Co's Hardware Store
I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec 4, 1866, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold, it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.
N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.
N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.
In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls in Burmah, is well told in the Baptist Messenger, relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed, and how while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the marvelous influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer. London Times.
Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes: "We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."
Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes: "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." m11awlm

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers.
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sick— Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Indian War Claims

As a matter of general interest we publish the following letter from Hon Alvan Flanders of Washington Territory to S D Howe Esq of Olympia, for which we are indebted to the favor of Hon Hazard Stevens, on the subject of the Indian War Claims of 1855-56

Washington D C April [illegible] 1868

[illegible] Having received numerous communications from citizens of Washington Territory asking for information in regard to claims growing out of the Indian hostilities in Oregon and Washington Territories in 1855 and 1856, and finding it impossible to answer in detail the great number of letters so received I have deemed it advisable to embody in the form of a circular letter a general statement of the status and condition of the aforesaid claims, and I have caused it to be published in the various newspapers of the Territory

Appreciating the importance of an early adjustment and settlement of the various claims as indicated above due the citizens of Washington Territory, payment of which by the General Government has already been too long deferred, I introduced in the House of Representatives on the 14th day of February last, a resolution having for its object the speedy adjustment of all the claims so justly due and remaining unpaid to the citizens of said Territory on account of Indian hostilities which was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs and ordered printed

Incidental to said resolution the Hon Secretary of the Interior was requested by the House of Representatives to inform said body as to the amount of those claims known as Indian Spoliation Claims on file in his department growing out of the Indian war of 1855 and 1856 as aforesaid and in response to said request the Hon Secretary returned the following answer

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D C March 2 1868 }

Sir In compliance with a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 14th ultimo, 'that the Secretary of the Interior be requested to inform the House of the amount of 'Indian spoliation claims' now on file in his department growing out of the Indian war of 1855-56 in Oregon and Washington Territory, and in Montana in 1865 1866 and in 1867,' I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of a communication dated the 29th ultimo from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, containing the information called for in said resolution

Very respectfully your ob't serv't
O H BROWNING Secretary
Hon Schuyler Colfax
Speaker House Representatives "

"DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington D C Feb 29 1868 }

"Sir I have the honor to report on the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 14th instant, calling for the amount of Indian spoliation claims now on file in the department growing out of the Indian war of 1855-56 in Oregon and Washington Territory, and in Montana in 1865 1866 and 1867,' referred by you to this office that there are claims now on file in this bureau for spoliations in Oregon and Washington during the war which lasted from October 1855 to July, 1856, amounting in the aggregate to $352,349 [illegible] and for spoliations growing out of the hostilities in 1865 66 and 67 by Indians who range in Montana and the Territory of Dakota and in Nebraska, amounting to $73 843

"It may be well to remark that claims of this latter class to the amount of $116 4 5, were at different times filed in this office but are not now on file, having been returned either to the claimants or their agents

"The resolution is herewith returned
Very respectfully
N. G TAYLOR,
Commissioner
Hon O H Browning,
Secretary of the Interior "

Waiving, for the present, explanatory remarks relating to the class of claims referred to above I will [illegible] the special claims, for the payment of which provision was made by the act of Congress of March 2d 1861 entitled " an act to provide for the payment of the expenses incurred by the Territories of Oregon and Washington in the suppression of Indian hostilities therein in the years 1855 and 1856 "

With a view to acquiring full information in the premises, in order to attain definite results, on the 25th ultimo, I addressed a letter to the Hon Wilson Third Auditor of the Treasury Department, with special reference to the claims remaining [illegible] within the purview of the act recited above, and the Third Auditor returned me the following reply which explains itself

"TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
THIRD AUDITOR'S OFFICE, April 2, 1868 }

"Sir In reply to your letter of the 25th ult requesting information in regard to certain Oregon and Washington Indian war claims I have to state that there has been found in this office a return of appraised property, made at the office of the Quartermaster, W T V for the post of Vancouver, W. T, upon which no allowance was made by the Third Auditor in his report, made in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives passed February 8th 1858 relative to claims growing out of Indian hostilities in Oregon and Washington Territories in 1855 and 1856 [illegible] of property appraised into the service of the volunteers during said Indian [illegible] by certificates of the appraiser, numbered from 1 to 88 and the abstract and certificates show the kind of property furnished, its appraised value and the names of the persons from whom it was received for service [illegible] consisted of horses, oxen saddles, bridles, arms, etc.

The Commissioners appointed by the Secretary of War to ascertain and report upon the expenses [illegible] said Territories in the suppression of [illegible] hostilities, certify that there is due for the hire and use of that part of the property mentioned in said abstract which was returned [illegible] owners and for the value of that portion of [illegible] property which was not returned, the sum of [illegible] two hundred and seventy 80 [illegible] dollars [illegible] 80)

"The [illegible] the Treasury (Hon [illegible]) in the above [illegible] report [illegible] 7th Feb [illegible] 1860, (See House Doc [illegible] Congress, 1st Session), showing the [illegible] claims growing [illegible] by the vouchers and [illegible] on file in this office at the date of the [illegible] of the resolution of the House above [illegible] not report any allowance upon [illegible] by said abstract and certificates [illegible]

"The [illegible] March 2d, 1861, entitled 'an [illegible] for the payment of the expenses incurred by the Territories of Oregon and Washington in the suppression of Indian hostilities [illegible] in the years 1855 and 1856,' makes appropriations for the payment of volunteers, and for the payment of claims for services supplies, transportation, &c, incurred in their maintenance, to be paid upon the principle and agreeably to the rates for services supplies transportation, &c, allowed and reported by the Third Auditor of the Treasury in his aforesaid report of the 7th February, 1860.

Under this act of Congress I am of the opinion that the Third Auditor can act only on such claims as are *allowed and *reported in said report and that I have no authority to make any allowances on the claims represented by said abstract and certificates

"I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN WILSON, Auditor
Hon. A[illegible]

[illegible] my own

During an interview with the Auditor (Mr Wilson), prior to addressing to him my letter of the 25th ult, he (Mr Wilson) was rather inclined to the opinion that he had authority to pay the $31 270 80 hereinbefore mentioned, the amount being already appropriated, but upon consideration and a more thorough examination of the law upon the subject, he came to the conclusion that his opinion was erroneous and that he has no authority so to do

In order to effect payment of said amount, I have taken the initiatory steps in Congress to have an act passed authorizing the prompt payment of the aforesaid amount for the claims recited together with such other claims as may be found in a tangible shape bearing upon the subject upon consideration

In the event of a refusal on the part of Congress to authorize and direct the payment of the several claims due to the people of Washington Territory incidental to and growing out of the Indian hostilities in said Territory in 1855 and 1856 as aforesaid as the claims now stand I shall make an earnest effort to obtain the consent and authorization from Congress of the appointment of a Special Commission whose duty it shall be to proceed to the aforesaid Territory and investigate audit and report upon all claims due and remaining unpaid to citizens thereof on account of said war and upon making their report to Congress their awards shall be binding upon the Government and payment to be made [illegible] at the earliest practicable [illegible] after I am clearly of the opinion that [illegible] would result [illegible] to the parties in interest than that of any other patent to my mind or conception Such a course, in the opinion of the undersigned, would lead to a more speedy and equitable liquidation of these claims which are so justly due to the citizens of Oregon and Washington and from whom payment has so long been grievously withheld from them by the General Government and would thereby prevent vexatious procrastination and be a saving to the National Treasury

Trusting that the foregoing statement may convey to my fellow citizens full information concerning the points discussed and in all respects subserve the purpose for which it is intended, viz enlighten all claimants in interest as to the present status and condition of [illegible] and deferred claims growing out of the Indian war of Oregon and Washington Territories in the years of 1855 and 1856

I have the honor to be with respect your obedient servant

What the Catholics are Doing Among the Freedmen Letter from Nathan Sheppard

BALTIMORE April [illegible] [illegible] the Editor of the Chicago Free [illegible] You will recollect that the Roman Catholic plenary council held in this city a year or two since, gave [illegible] that the church was about to [illegible] ecclesiastical [illegible] the negro population of the United States I wondered at the time why publicity was given to the resolution and why instead [illegible] it was not stamped upon it At least still seems to me that the latter would have been the wiser way of going about this movement but if there is any organization in the world that knows what it is about, it is the Catholic hierarchy and so the reasons for allowing Protestantism to get wind of this project must be greater than those for keeping it in ignorance until its inevitable consequences were visible to the naked eye

But be this as it may, it is not resting to investigate the consequences and find out what progress the sovereign pontiff is making among the descendants of Ham, the Egyptians and Colonel Johnson the Democrat That progress is already manifest. The tide is setting with considerable volume toward the Catholic Church among the freed people of the South Hitherto they have been to the extent of a very large majority, divided between the Baptists and Methodists. I am convinced now that these great denominations will have to be alert and active, or the scepter they have so long and beneficently swayed over their people will be materially weakened, if not ultimately destroyed. The Catholics are determined to sway the scepter and they may do it one of these days before the Protestant world are even fully advised of their undertaking it While our preachers are breaking their dialectic lances with one another in the "Free Will" controversy the priests of the papacy are flitting hither and thither at the dictum of his Holiness, whispering one to the [illegible]

In this city a large and thrifty numbers two Catholic churches a school for the education of priests and several common schools for the education of Catholic children have grown up among the negroes after the Jonah's gourd fashion and attract what little attention the Protestant [illegible] have to spare from their topknots and tight trowsers I learn from an intelligent colored man well [illegible] the conversation ran about thus

"Are the Catholics making many converts among your people?"

"Yes sir a good many"

"Well how do they effect their object"

"By kindness They are doing more in this city for our people than any other denomination"

"Are you a Catholic?"

"No sir, but my wife and children are members of St Joseph's I attend there sometimes and see the priest often and that's how it is I know something of what's going on"

"Do they make any distinctions between the white and colored communicants?"

"No sir I have seen them sitting together in the pews and I have seen a black man hand the cup to a white one and I heard the priest of St Joseph's say in the pulpit 'God made no distinction, and the church cannot All here are equal Whatever may be the distinctions recognized in social life the church is no respecter of persons Those who do not like this arrangement can go away'"

"Yes sir"

"It is a colored school I suppose?"

"Yes sir but I could send them to a white Catholic school if I wanted to We have separate schools but it's our own choice"

"Does the church look after your poor"

"Indeed they do sir Not a Catholic man woman or child is allowed to suffer Every want is soon supplied They are very attentive The Sisters will help our little girl with her sewing and the priest is very well mannered to me"

"Then you think the Catholics will win a good many of your people?"

"I have no doubt of it sir You can't blame us for going where we are treated best, and we couldn't ask any better treatment than we get from the Catholics It's a very different sort of treatment than what we have received from the white people heretofore"

Thaddeus Stevens, who is carried to the Capitol every day by two stalwart attendants, recently said to them "Well boys what am I to do when you are both dead and gone?"

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE
 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED
 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY WILL BE MAINTAINED

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and knowledge give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in need to the invaluable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ.

I am aware that by dwelling upon such a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the vital principle of life the ignorant may [illegible] tive but the desire to point out to those who [illegible] and decay the true cause of their great an incentive to be forced into [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal [illegible] me but the practical specialist who [illegible] treatment can tell but the [illegible] he meet the [illegible] by noting the [illegible] toms; Weakness of the back and [illegible] feelings loss of [illegible] power nervous [illegible] cold feet or hands [illegible] of consumption short hectic flashings of the [illegible] to society confusion of the [illegible] loss of [illegible] nightly emissions; colorless slight [illegible] excitement trembling palpitation of [illegible] regular appetite variable temper etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider present is the golden moment in which [illegible] health and happiness You may [illegible] you have ever practiced the vice of self [illegible] the seeds of [illegible] system and their [illegible] later dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject [illegible] disease that declares itself at once [illegible] est danger; for while the patient is being [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, [illegible] time, he sinks into a general debility [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing [illegible] of the fascinating vice Mark the [illegible] complaint in the hollow cheek and [illegible]

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually [illegible] mind becomes apprehensive and restless [illegible] days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint [illegible] hangs that leave the poor victim but little [illegible] society. In a single instant it may [illegible] hopes and blast your best aspirations.
